

What's Changed

National recommendations now require schools to:

- ✓ Respond to bullying within 48 hours
- ✓ Embed trauma-informed approaches in policies
- ✓ Provide staff training on responding to harmful behaviour

Schools need systems and skills that restore safety, not just impose discipline.

How SKI Can Help

Saints Knowledge Institute (SKI) supports schools to translate these changes into practice through:

Trauma-Informed Training

Practical, evidence-based, and adaptable to your context.

Whole-School Support

From staff meetings to leadership and policy alignment.

Training Options

Staff-Meeting Workshops (60–90 mins)

Equip your team to respond calmly and consistently using trauma-informed strategies.

Whole-School Implementation

Coaching and consultation to integrate trauma-informed responses across your systems.

Ready to Respond?

We understand that every situation is different and comes with its own set of obstacles and advantages.
Get in touch with us to start a conversation and learn more.

